Dear Paul:

I have thoroughly enjoyed going through your 1966 booklet. You have again done an outstanding job with this excellent tool.

I notice in your latest bulletin where you plan to teach a course on the Holy Spirit "with a special emphasis on the personal indwelling of the Spirit in the lives of Christians." I distinctly remember conversations with you on this subject back in 1963. You are aware of the ~~rumor~~ ^{rumor} created at ACC this past week by Dwain Evan's presentation. I agree completely with Dwain and certainly with your emphasis on the personal indwelling of the Holy Spirit. There are many pressures on me as a result of this position; and, therefore, I am interested in the materials you will use in this class. Please send me any class outlines and bibliography that you might use.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
